

Example for graphical report based on R script

Standard errors of the means of different target conditions across all trials

Standard errors of the means of different target conditions across all trials
- Intersubject variability accounted for -

